

Notes, Copyright and Credit

This is the Tryzub Ukrainian Stamp Album 2015 supplement. This supplement is ©2016 by Andrew Pastuszek

Tryzub Ukrainian Stamp Album is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 3.0 Unported License.

A human readable version of the license can be found here: <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/>

The full legal text can be found here: <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/legalcode>

All stamp images were obtained from either personal scans or directly from the philatelic section of ukrposhta.com (<http://poshta.kiev.ua/nishop.php?act=shgr&id=1>)

Description research is done at one of 3 locations:

Wikipedia - <http://www.wikipedia.org>

The Former Soviet Union New Issues Web Site - <http://home.nestor.minsk.by/fsunews/index.html>

The Trident-Visnyk Newsletter of the Ukrainian Philatelic Numismatic Society Newsletter

The Ukrainian Philatelic and Numismatic Society

If you're into collecting Ukrainian Stamps, consider joining:

The Ukrainian Philatelic and Numismatic Society

<http://www.upns.org>

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Vasyl Symonenko

January 8, 2015

1465

Vasyl Symonenko was a prominent Ukrainian poet, novelist and journalist. He was one of the brightest representatives of the 1960's Soviet generation. Symonenko's works were full of philosophical reflection, being anti-totalitarian and leaning towards Ukrainian liberation. The most "radical" poetry was skewed or banned by Soviet censors.

Ukraine Unification Day - January 22nd

January 22, 2015

1466

This holiday celebrates the unification of the Ukrainian National Republic with the Western Ukrainian National Republic. The UNR declared independence from Russia on January 22, 1918. The WUNR declared independence from the Austro-Hungarian Empire on November 1, 1918. Both halves of Ukraine united under a common government on January 22, 1919.

In Remembrance of the Heavenly Hundred

February 22, 2015

1467

The "Heavenly Hundred" is the term used to describe the people killed during the 2013-2014 Euromaidan protest in Kyiv, Ukraine. The Euromaidan protests ultimately led to an overthrow of the Ukrainian government.

Mykhailo Verbytsky

March 4, 2015

1468

Mykhailo Verbytsky was a Ukrainian Catholic priest and composer. He is considered to be one of the first professional Ukrainian composers of Halychyna. Verbytsky is known for composing an alternate melody to the song Shche ne vmerla Ukrainy, which later became the national anthem of Ukraine.

Sviatoslav Richter

March 20, 2015

1469

Sviatoslav Richter was a Soviet pianist known for the depth of his interpretations, virtuoso technique, and vast repertoire. He is considered one of the greatest pianists of the 20th century.

Boris Lutski

April 10, 2015

1470

Boris Lutski was a Ukrainian engineer who specialized in engine design. He collaborated with the German automobile company Daimler. The collaboration yielded a lot of technical innovations and helped establish the Mercedes line of cars. Lutski also helped design ships, missiles, and aircraft.

UKRAINE

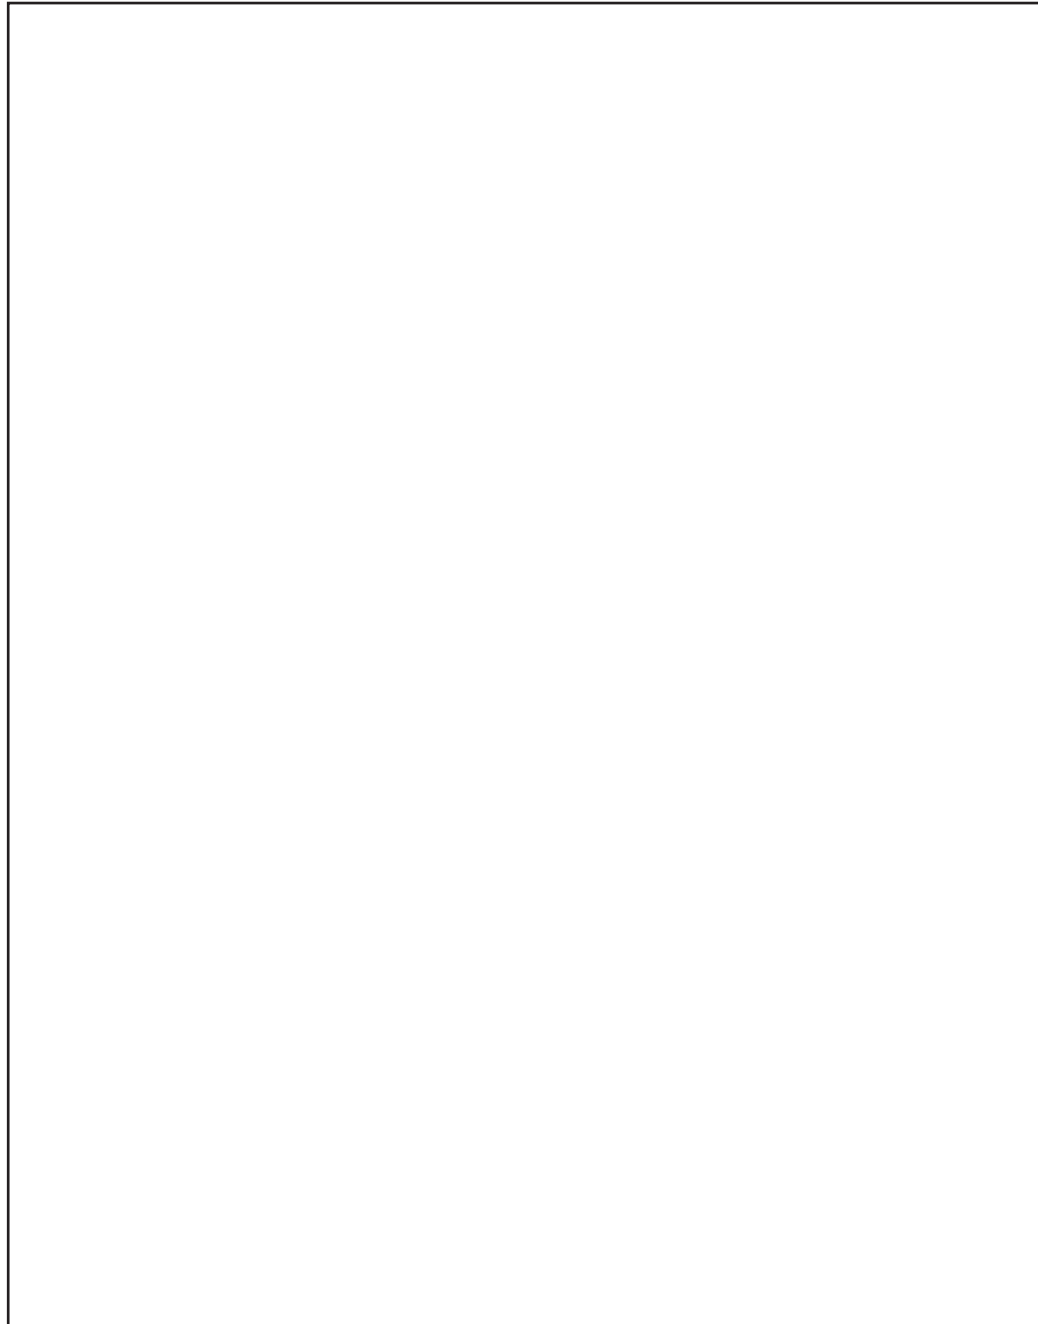

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Władysław Horodecki

February 14, 2014

1399 - 1404

Władysław Horodecki was a renowned Polish architect and big-game hunter, best known for his immense contributions in Kiev urban development in the late 19th and early 20th century. This miniature sheet features some of his most prominent designs.

The top row features Karaite Kenesa(1399) on the ends and National Art Museum of Ukraine in the center-(1402).

The middle row shows the Horodecki House(1404), and Art Nouveau style apartment building. The stamps on the right(1401) and left(1400) show details of the building.

The bottom row shows St. Nicholas Roman Catholic Cathedral(1403) on either end and repeat the National Art Museum and Horodecki building in the center.

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

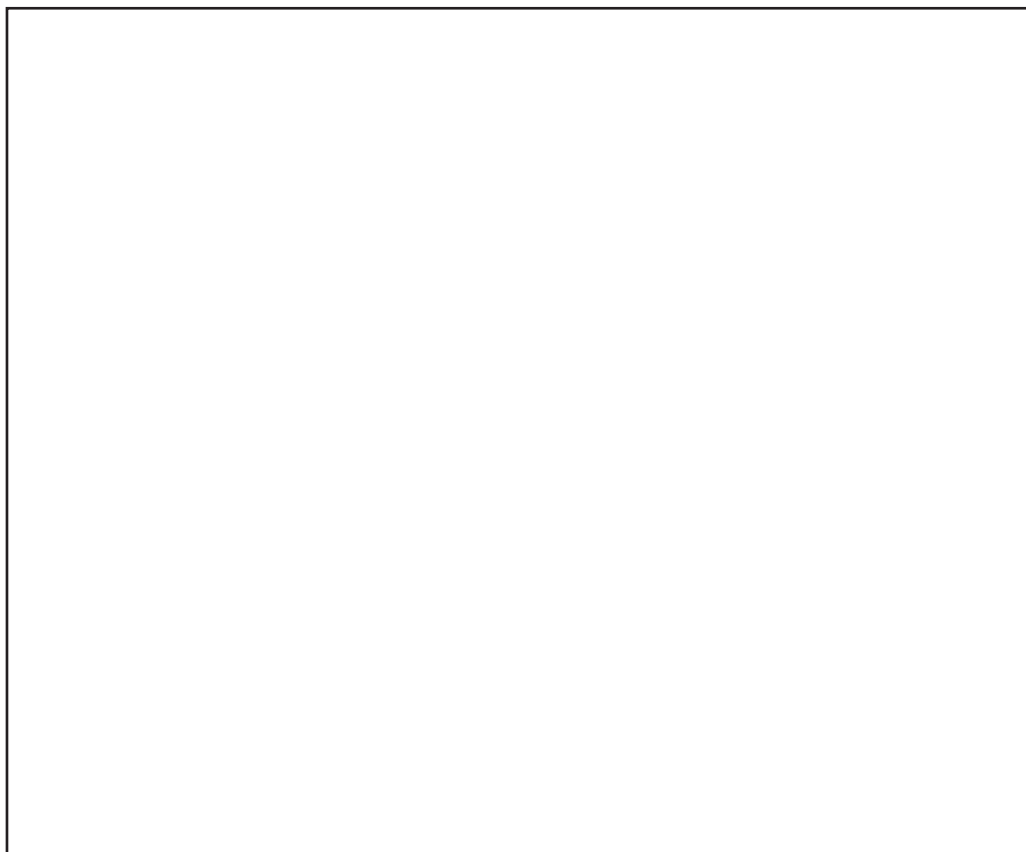

Kirovohrad

February 27, 2014

1406

Block 119 (1407 - 1410)

Part of the Beauty and Grandeur of Ukraine series, a stamp and a miniature sheet was issued to honor Kirovohrad, an oblast (province) and city in Ukraine.

The stamp features the city of Kirovohrad. Formerly called Yelisavetgrad, it is a city in central Ukraine located on the Inhul River, and is the administrative center of the Kirovohrad Oblast. It has a population of 239,400.

Developed around a military settlement, the city rose to prominence in the 19th century when it became an important trade center, as well as a Ukrainian cultural leader with the first professional theatrical company in either Central or Eastern Ukraine being established here in 1882.

The stamp shows the Kirovohrad Academic Ukrainian Music and Drama Theater.

The miniature sheet features 4 stamps about Kirovohrad oblast. The top left stamp, valued at ₴2.00, shows the Holy Ascension Cathedral. The middle stamp, valued at ₴2.50, shows the Kirovohrad Academic Ukrainian Music and Drama Theater. The right stamp, valued at ₴2.00 shows a Scythian stone carving. The bottom stamp, valued at ₴4.80, features the traditional Ukrainian dance company "Prolisok."

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Vasyl Lypkivsky

May 8, 2014

1413

Vasyl Lypkivsky was the founder of the Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church and the first "Metropolitan of Kyiv and All Ukraine" (1921–1927). In 1937 he was sentenced to death by the NKVD.

Maria Kapnist

May 16, 2014

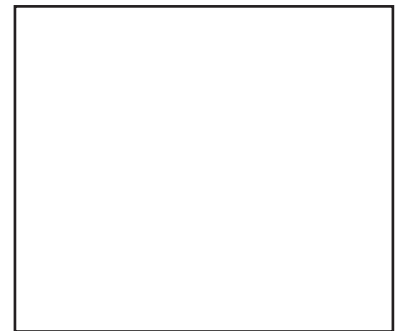

1414

Maria Kapnist was a Ukrainian actress. Born to an aristocratic family in 1914, her family lost all its wealth after the Communist revolution, and was sentenced to 15 years hard labor. Upon her release she moved to Kyiv and began a prolific acting career, starring in over 120 movies. This stamp commemorates the 100th anniversary of her birth.

UNICEF - Draw Your Rights

May 29, 2014

1415

UNICEF held a contest in 2013 in conjunction with UKRPOSHTA asking children to draw their rights as children. The winning design was going to be placed on a 2014 postage stamp. The winning design shows a "right to a happy life."

Juan de Zurbarán

May 29, 2014

1416

This stamp shows the painting Still Life With A Chocolate Mill, painted by Italian artist Juan de Zurbarán. The painting is on display at Bohdan and Varvara Khanenko National Museum in Kyiv.

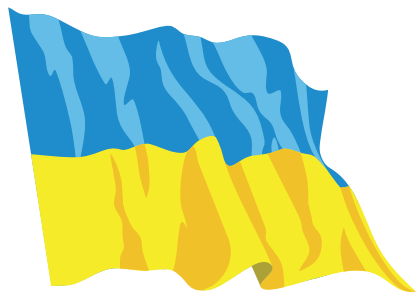

Sikorsky Ilya Muromets

June 17, 2014

1417

The Sikorsky Ilya Muromets is a class of Russian pre-World War I large four-engine commercial airliners. It was converted to a heavy military bomber during World War I by the Russian Empire. The aircraft series was named after Ilya Muromets, a hero from Slavic mythology. It was the first four-engine plane to be equipped as a dedicated strategic bombing unit.

UKRAINE

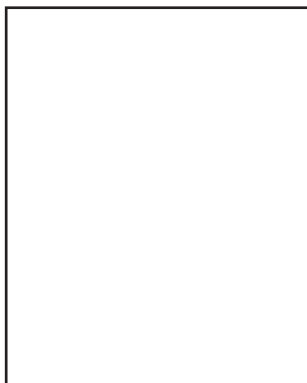

2015

Commemorative Stamps

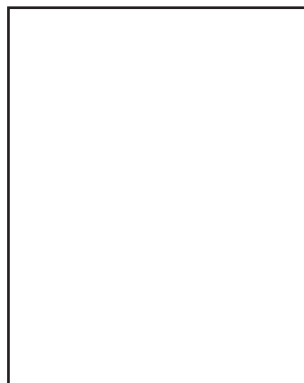

Europa: Musical Instruments

July 25, 2014

1418

1419

The kobza is a Ukrainian folk music instrument of the lute family, a relative of the Central European mandora. It was usually played by a bard or minstrel known as a kobzar, who accompanies his recitation of epic poetry called duma in Ukrainian.

Ilya Repin

July 29, 2014

1422

This stamp celebrates the 170th anniversary of the birth of Ilya Repin. Repin was a Russian realist painter. He was the most renowned Russian artist of the 19th century. He played a major role in bringing Russian art into the mainstream of European culture. His famous work Reply of the Zaporozhian Cossacks is pictured here.

UKRAINE

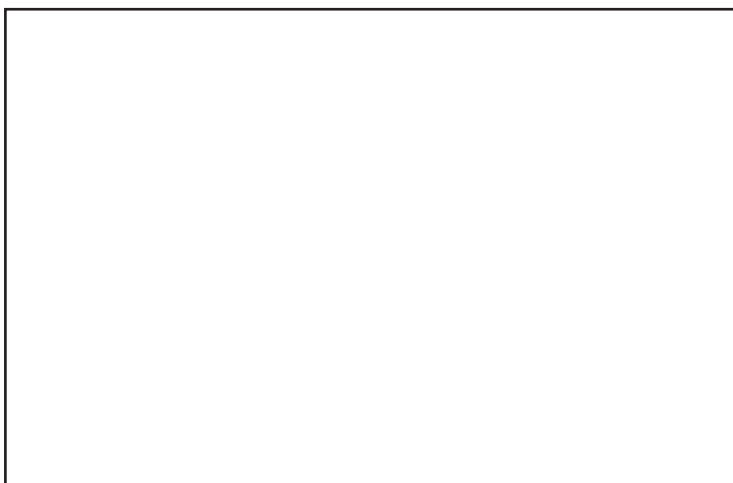

2015

Commemorative Stamps

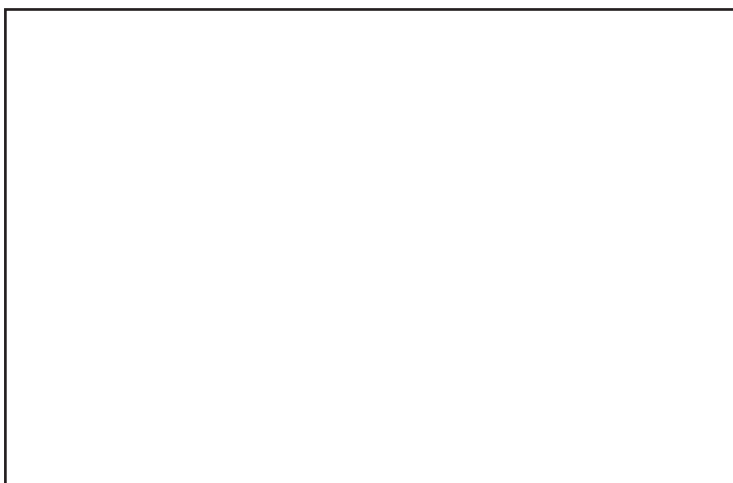

Europa: Musical Instruments (Booklet)

July 25, 2014

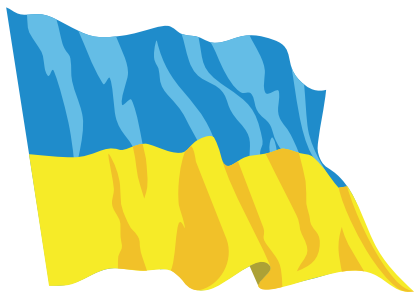

1420

1421

The 2014 Eupora stamps were also issued as a booklet. The stamps are smaller than the sheet versions of the stamp (27½ mm × 36½ mm). The booklet contains two sheets. Each sheet has one stamp and the selvage contains artwork from the other stamp in the set.

UKRAINE

2015

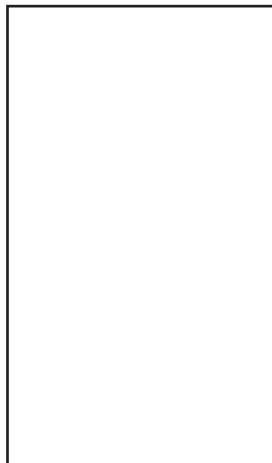

Commemorative Stamps

Cactuses

Pilosocereus palmeri

August 15, 2014

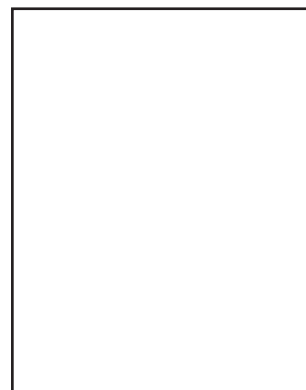

1425

Pilosocereus palmeri is a large tree-like cactus which is common in Mexico. It has a blue ribbed stem tufted in thick silky wool from which near the tops emerge short, funnel-shaped, flesh-coloured blooms.

Graptopetalum bellum

August 15, 2014

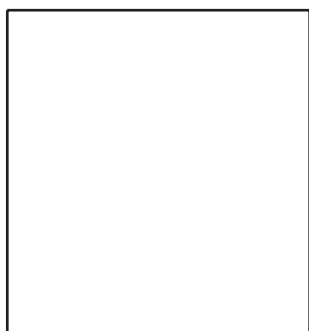

1426

Graptopetalum bellum, also known as Tacitus bellus, was discovered by Alfred Lau in 1972 in West Mexico (states of Chihuahua and Sonora) at an altitude of 1,460 m (4,800 ft).

Gymnocalycium anisitsii

August 15, 2014

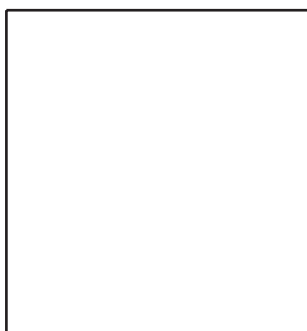

1423

Gymnocalycium anisitsii is a globular cactus belonging to the family Cactaceae. The specific epithet honors the Hungarian pharmacist Dániel Anisits J. (1856-1911).

Opuntia microdasys

August 15, 2014

1424

Opuntia microdasys (Bunny Ears Cactus, Bunny Cactus or Polka-dot Cactus) is a species of cactus native and endemic to central and northern Mexico.

Euromaidan

August 22, 2014

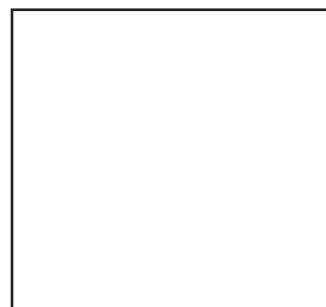

1427

Euromaidan was a wave of demonstrations and civil unrest in Ukraine, which began on the night of 21 November 2013 with public protests in Maidan Nezalezhnosti (Independence Square) in Kiev, demanding closer European integration. The protests ultimately led to the 2014 Ukrainian revolution.

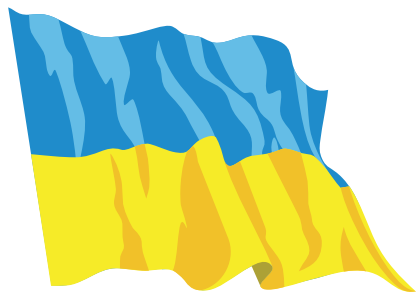

A Lady In Black

October 6, 2014

1442

Part of the Treasures of Ukrainian Museums series, this stamp features the painting The Lady in Black by Russian artist Boris Grigoriev. The painting is on display at the Dnipropetrovsk Art Museum

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

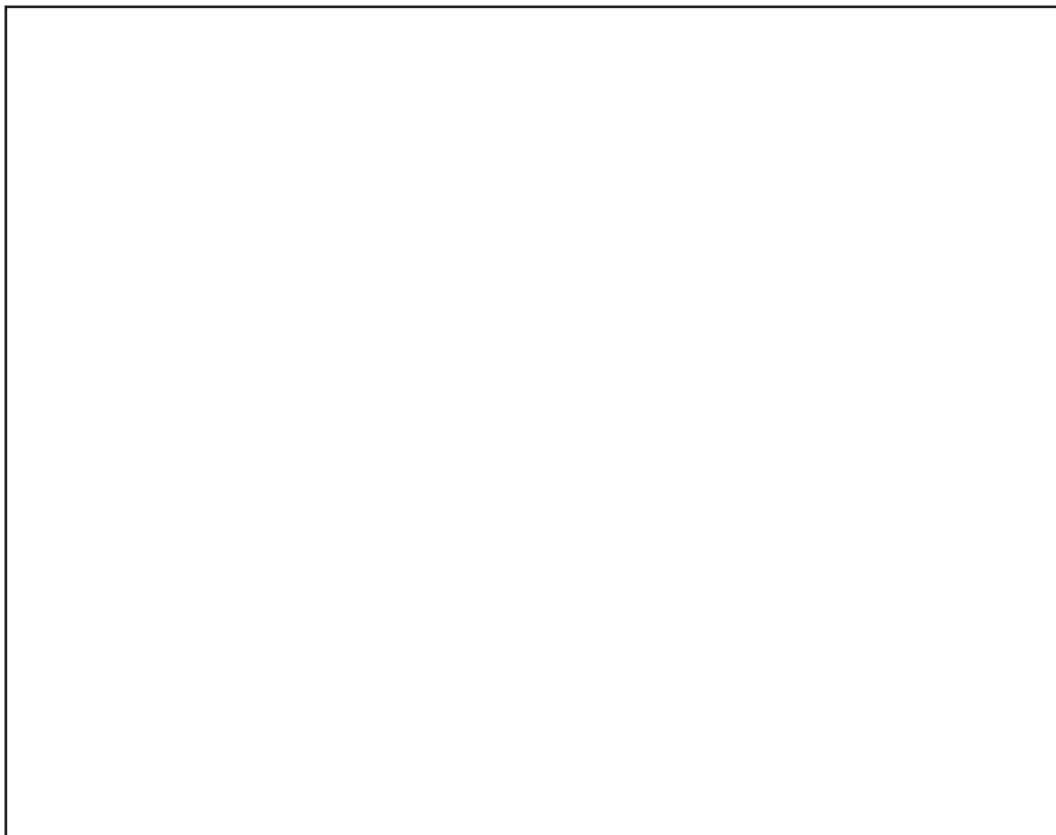

Odessa

September 2, 2014

1428

Block 120 (1429-1432)

Part of the "Beauty and Grandeur of Ukraine" series, this stamp and miniature sheet was issued to honor the port city and oblast (province) of Odessa.

The individual stamp features a monument created by sculptor Alexander Tokarev. It is dedicated to the faithful wives and children of sailors.

The miniature sheet celebrates the oblast by showing us four scenes on stamps. The upper-left (1429) shows Akkerman Fortress in the city of Bilhorod-Dnistrovsky. It was built by the Tatars to protect the Ottoman Empire from enemies to the north. The upper-right (1430) shows the Odessa Marina. The bottom-left (1431) shows St. Nicholas Orthodox Church in the town of Vylkove. The bottom-right (1432) shows the Illichivsky Lighthouse in the port town of Illichivsk.

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

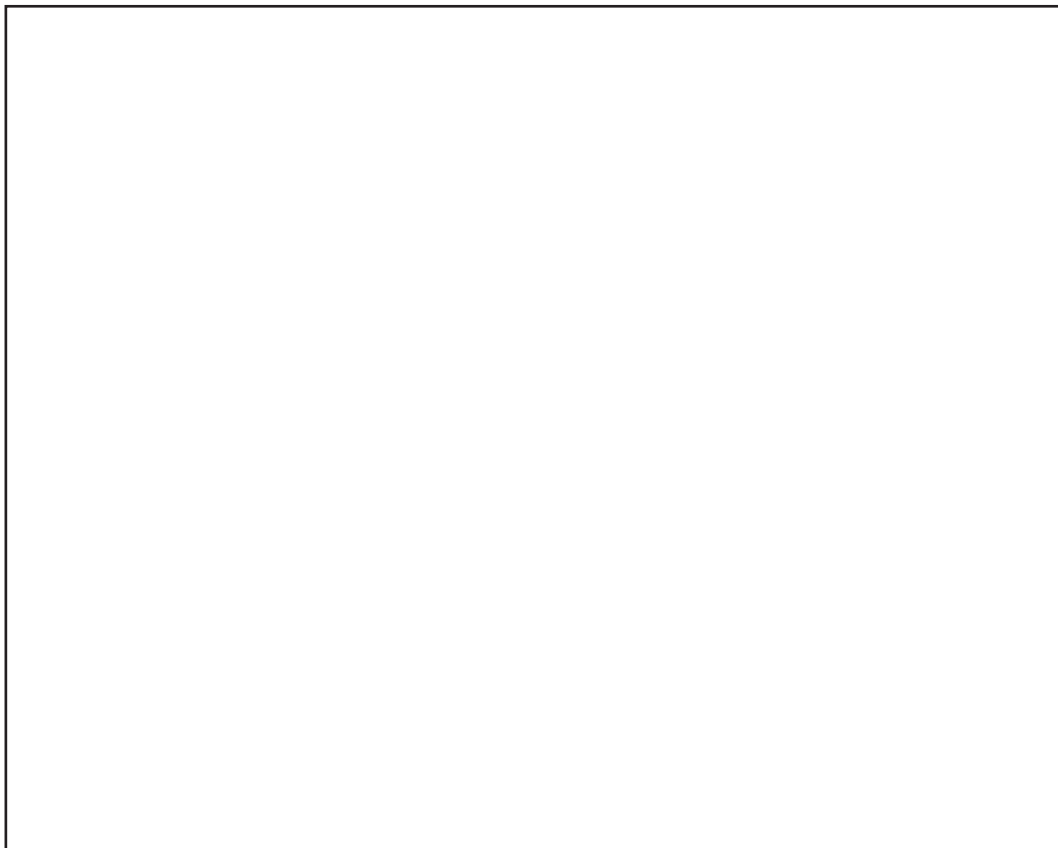

Mykolaiv

September 13, 2014

1433

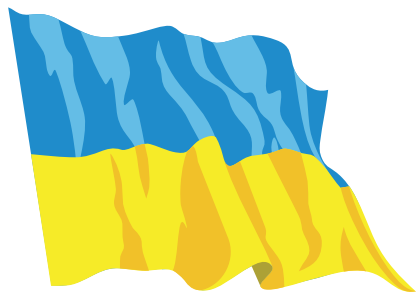

Block 121 (1434-1437)

Part of the "Beauty and Grandeur of Ukraine" series, this stamp and miniature sheet was issued to honor the city and oblast (province) of Mykolaiv.

The individual stamp features a monument created by Kyiv architects V. A. Chepelyk, M. I. Kislyy, N. I. Alekseyenko and V. P. Sklutsky, to commemorate the shipbuilders of the city. Mykolaiv has three shipyard and a major Ukrainian river port.

The miniature sheet celebrates the oblast by showing us four scenes on stamps. The upper-left (1434) shows a highway interchange in the city of Pervomaisk. The upper-middle (1435) shows the Cathedral of Our Lady Mother of Kasperovskaya in the city of Mykollav. The right-left (1436) shows the Buzkiy Gard Natural Reserve in the town of Myhiya. The bottom (1437) shows the Black Sea Shipyard in the city of Mykolaiv.

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Taras Shevchenko

Portrait of Vasyl Leontiyovych Kochubey

September 26, 2014

1438

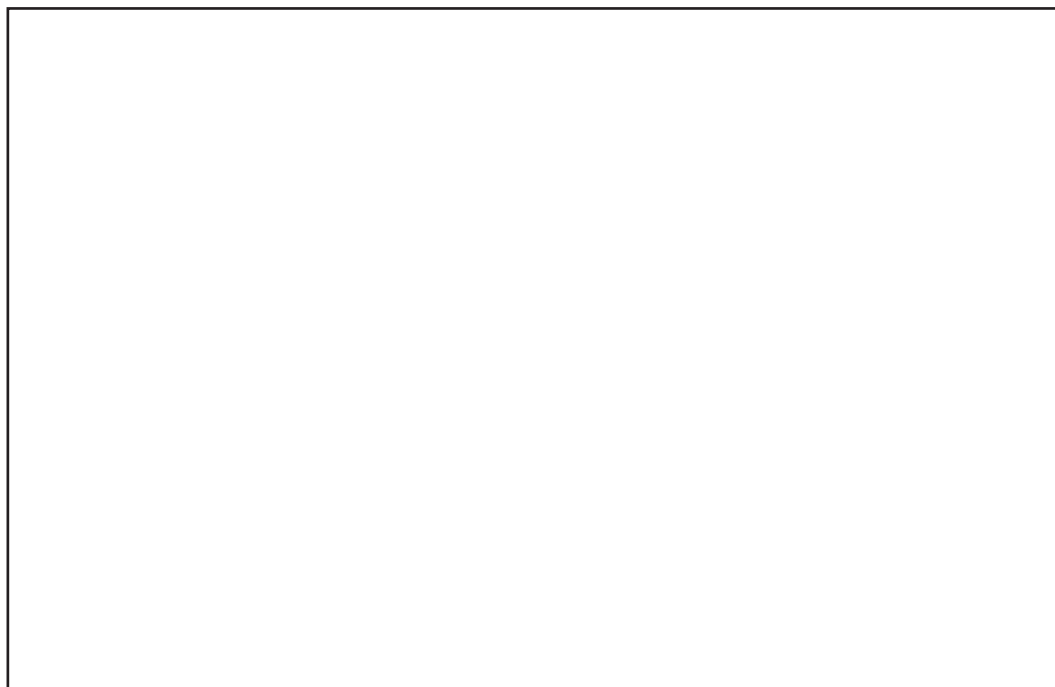

Gifts in Chyhyryn

September 26, 2014

1439

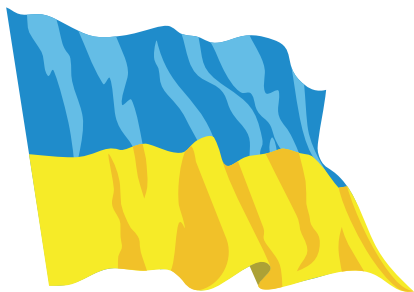

200th Anniversary of the Birth of Taras Shevchenko

Block 122 (1440-1441)

Taras Shevchenko was a Ukrainian poet, writer, artist, public and political figure, as well as folklorist and ethnographer. His literary heritage is regarded to be the foundation of modern Ukrainian literature and, to a large extent, the modern Ukrainian language. Shevchenko is also known for many masterpieces as a painter and an illustrator.

To celebrate the 200th anniversary of his birth, 2 stamps and a souvenir sheet were issued. The two stamps show two famous pieces of Shevchenko's artwork, and the souvenir sheet shows some characters from his literary works (left) and a portrait of the artist (right).

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Pigeons

Kryukiv Pigeon

October 10, 2014

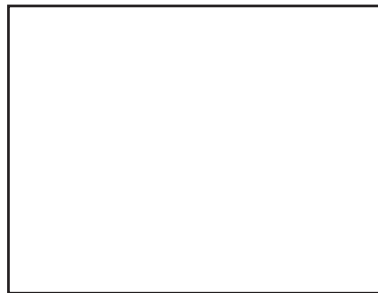

1443

The Kryukiv Pigeon is considered the greatest achievement of Ukrainian pigeon breeding. The bird is white, delicate, tiny, with bright lively temperment.

Odessa Tumbler

October 10, 2014

1444

The Odessa Tumbler was developed sometime in the late 19th century.

Kyiv Light

October 10, 2014

1445

Developed in the second half of the 19th century, this pigeon has strong wings, courage and heart, flying in the wind, rain and always finding their way back home.

Mykolaiv High Flyer

October 10, 2014

1446

This pigeon was bred in the 18th century in the Mykolaiv Oblast in Ukraine.

UKRAINE

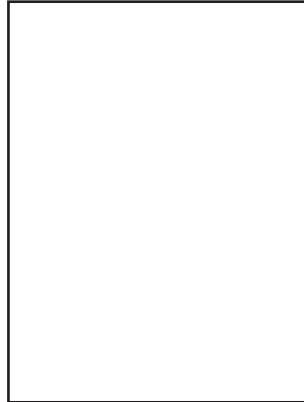

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Liberation of Ukraine from the Nazis

October 28, 2014

1447

The 70th anniversary of the liberation of Ukraine from occupying Nazi forces was celebrated on October 28th, 2014. The liberation of Ukraine was ended by the Carpathian operation, launched on September 9, 1944. On October 27, 1944, Uzhhorod became free and on October 28, the Soviet troops were already on the modern border of the State.

Happy New Year and Merry Christmas

November 14, 2014

1451

The 2014 New Year and Christmas stamp features a silhouette for an angel with Ukrainian Embroidery on it.

Chernivtsi Post Office

October 31, 2014

1448

The Chernivtsi Post Office is a 125 year old Renaissance style building built by Viennese architect Frederick Zetsa. It is a perfect example of the Viennese school of architecture of the last quarter of the nineteenth century.

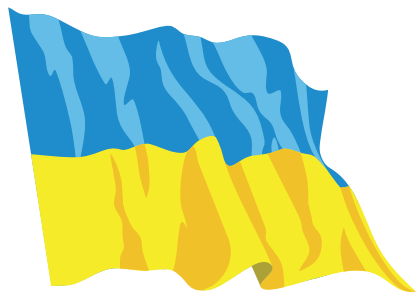

For Honor! For Glory! For People!

December 5, 2014

1457

This stamp was issued to honor all the Ukrainian soldiers fighting separatists in Eastern Ukraine.

UKRAINE

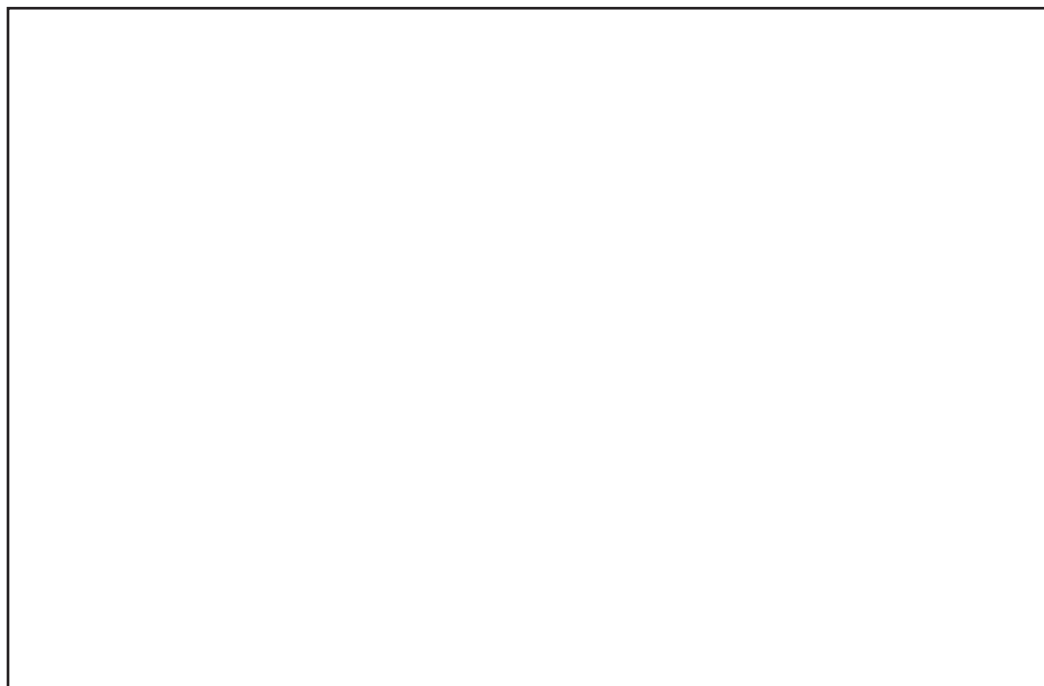

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Tereshchenko Family

November 14, 2014

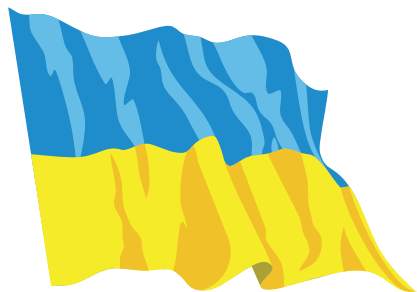

Block 123 (1449-1450)

The Tereshchenko Family is a wealthy family that grew into prominence in 18th century Ukraine. Members of the family have become famous not only as prominent businessmen and entrepreneurs, but also as extraordinary philanthropists and landowners. The Tereshchenko family has Cossack roots and comes from the ancient city of Hlukhiv (now Sumy region), the former residence of Hetmans of Left-bank Ukraine.

The top stamp in the sheet shows Artemy Tereshchenko, the first member of the family elevated to nobility by the Russian Czar. The bottom stamp shows the Tereshchenko coat of arms.

The selvage shows seven members of the family along with various buildings the family owns, or made donations to help build.

UKRAINE

2015

Commemorative Stamps

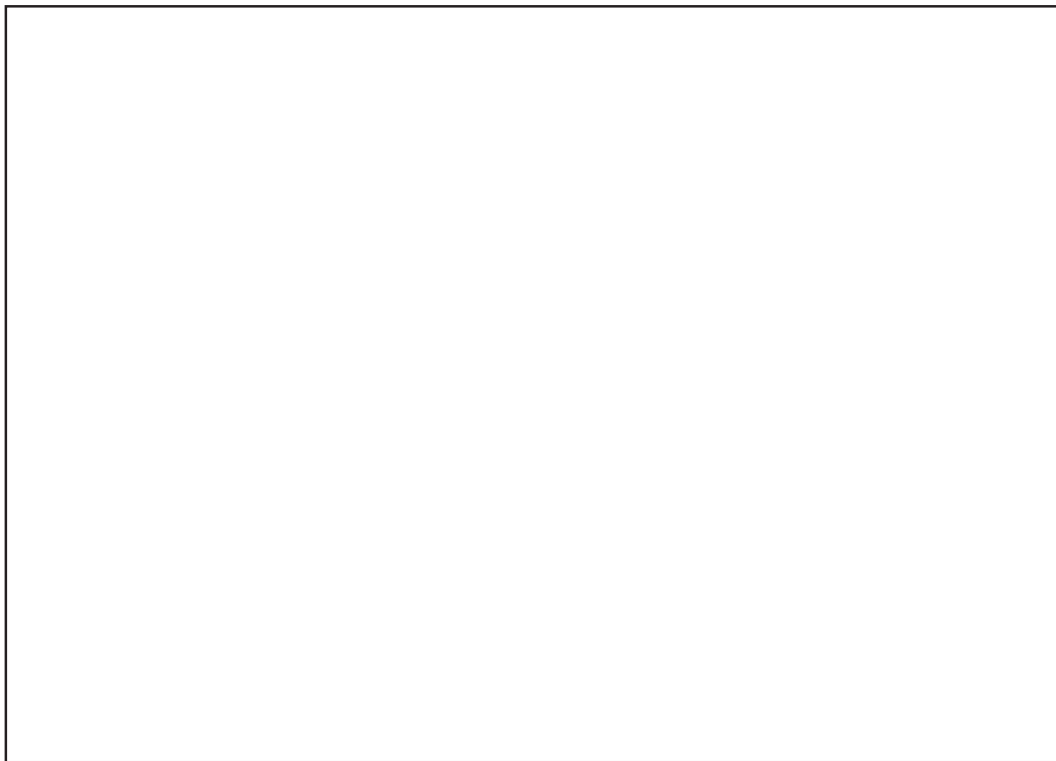

Volyn

December 4, 2014

1452

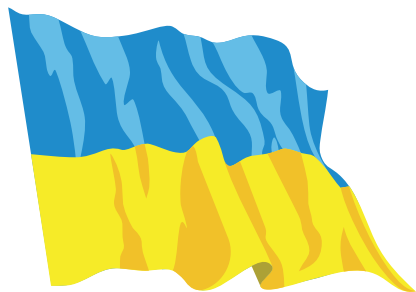

Block 124 (1453-1456)

Part of the "Beauty and Grandeur of Ukraine" series, this stamp and miniature sheet was issued to honor the city and oblast (province) of Volyn.

The individual stamp shows Lutsk Railway Station. It was built in 1890 on the order of Czar Alexander III

The miniature sheet celebrates the oblast by showing us four scenes on stamps. The top stamp shows the Zymne Monastery. The origin of the monastery is unknown, but it dates back to at least 1458. Legend has it, it may date back to the time of Vladymyr the Great. The left stamp shows a statue of Ukrainian poet and author, Lesia Ukrainka. The center stamp shows the Okonska Lake and its 2 springs that constantly feed water to it from underground. The right stamp shows an angel made of straw, a common form of art for the Volyn region.

UKRAINE

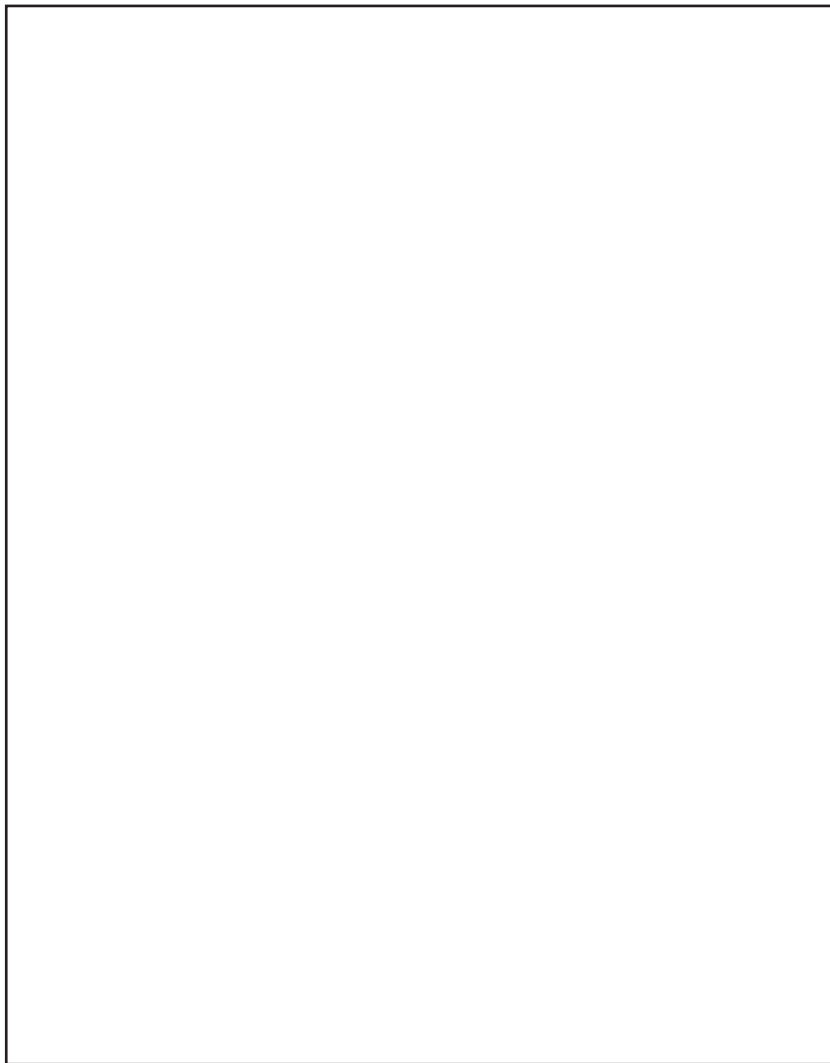

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Generous Ukraine - Winter

December 19, 2014

Block 125 (1458-1461)

The fourth stamp in the "Generous Ukraine" series, this stamp features the season of Woman. The sheet shows a woman in Ukrainian winter attire surrounded by plants and animals typically seen in winter.

The top stamp shows the great tit (Parus major), a passerine bird in the tit family Paridae. It is generally resident, and most great tits do not migrate except in extremely harsh winters.

The bottom left stamp shows the mountain hare (Lepus timidus). It is a hare that is largely adapted to polar and mountainous habitats.

The bottom center stamp shows the Guelder Rose (Viburnum opulus). This shrub with maple-like leaves produces small red berries than can be seen in the winter.

The bottom right stamp shows a Red Squirrel (Sciurus vulgaris), a common species in the Ukrainian woods that is active in winter.

UKRAINE

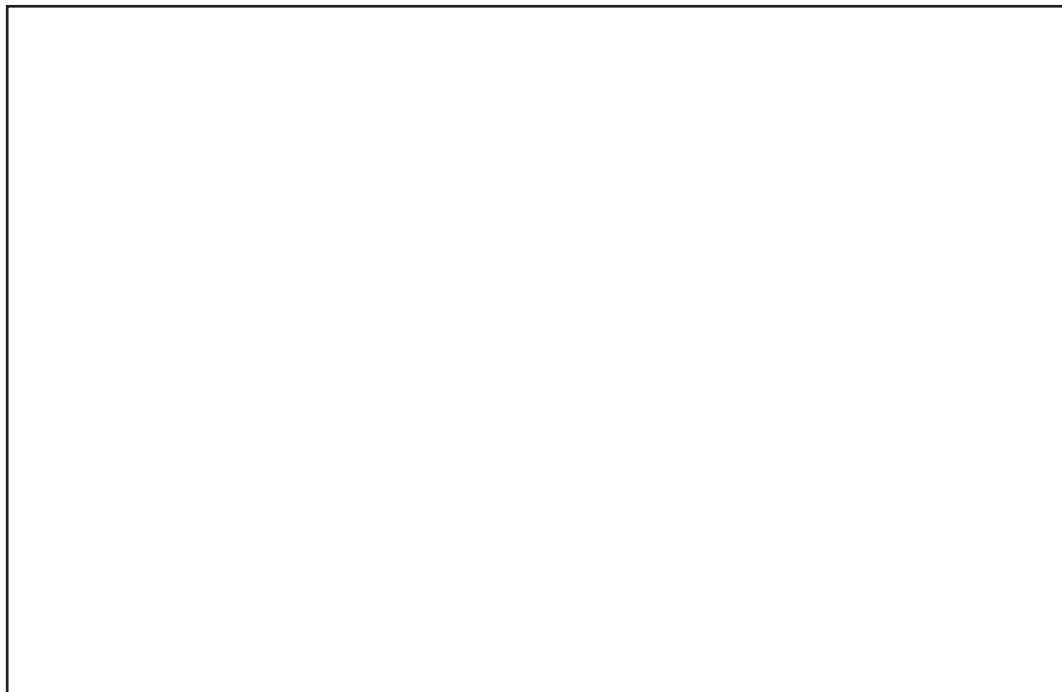

2015

Commemorative Stamps

Monuments of Ancient Cultures

December 25, 2014

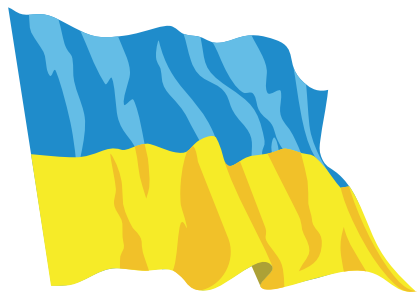

Block 126 (1463-1464)

A joint issue with Pakistan, this souvenir sheet features 2 stamps.

The left stamp shows a bowl and figure from the Trypillian culture, an ancient Ukrainian culture that existed in western Ukraine from 4800 BC through 3000 BC. The Trypillian Culture is known for destroying their settlements every 60-85 years and building new ones.

The right stamps shows items excavated from Mohenjo-daro, an archeological site in the province of Sindh, Pakistan. Built around 2600 BCE, it was one of the largest settlements of the ancient Indus Valley Civilization, and one of the world's earliest major urban settlements, contemporaneous with the civilizations of ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Crete, and Norte Chico.

UKRAINE

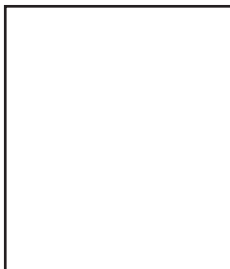

2015
Definitive Stamps

8th Definitive Series Type VII

Alder

February 27, 2014

1218 VII

Elm

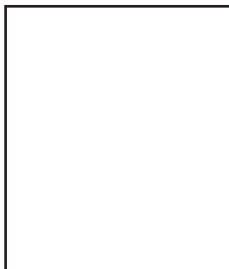

February 27, 2014

1219 VII

Rowan

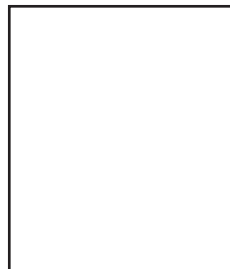

February 27, 2014

1221 VII

Chestnut

February 27, 2014

1223 VII

Oak

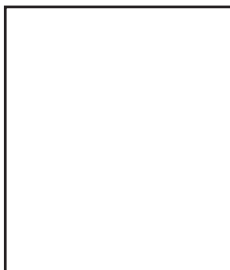

February 27, 2014

1224 VII

Locust

September 18, 2014

1212 VII

Walnut

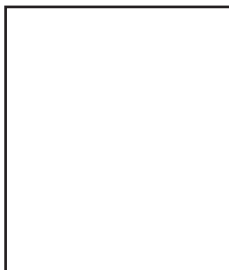

September 18, 2014

1213 VII

Birch

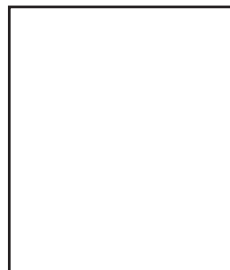

September 18, 2014

1214 VII

Lime

September 18, 2014

1216 VII

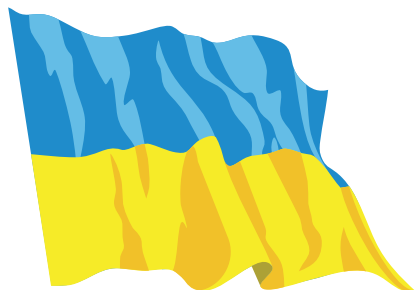

Ash

September 18, 2014

1222 VII

The 8th Definitive Series features leaves and seeds of various trees native to Ukraine. The Type VII stamps have a microprint that reads "2014".

UKRAINE

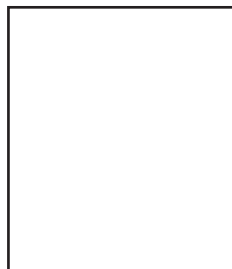

2015
Definitive Stamps

8th Definitive Series Type VIII

Chestnut

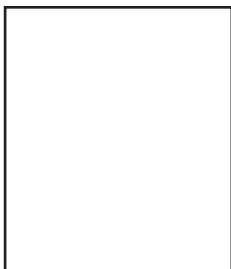

July 8, 2014

1223 VIII

Oak

July 8, 2014

1224 VIII

Alder

September 18, 2014

1218 VIII

Rowan

September 18, 2014

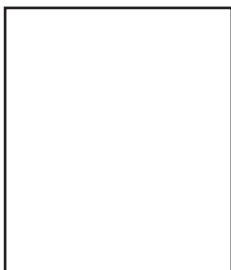

1221 VIII

The 8th Definitive Series features leaves and seeds of various trees native to Ukraine. The Type VIII stamps have a microprint that reads "2014 II".

8th Definitive Series Type IX

Chestnut

September 18, 2014

1223 IX

Oak

September 18, 2014

1224 IX

The 8th Definitive Series features leaves and seeds of various trees native to Ukraine. The Type IX stamps have a microprint that reads "2014 III".

UKRAINE

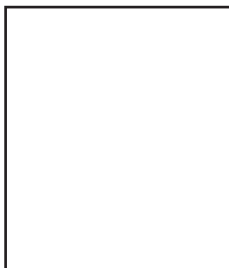

2015
Definitive Stamps

8th Definitive Series Self-Adhesive

Oak

December 22, 2014

1462

The 8th Definitive Series features leaves and seeds of various trees native to Ukraine. The Type IX stamps have a microprint that reads "2014 III".